PARTIES

6. Plaintiff PAULA MCCOURTY is a forty-five year old African American woman residing in Queens, New York.

7. Plaintiff ERIC GILLESPIE is a twenty-three year old African American man residing in Queens, New York.

8. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.

9. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK maintains the New York City Police Department (hereinafter referred to as "NYPD"), a duly authorized public authority and/or police department, authorized to perform all functions of a police department as per the applicable sections of the aforementioned municipal corporation, CITY OF NEW YORK.

10. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendants, GEORGE BRANCACCIO, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10, were duly sworn police officers of said department and were acting under the supervision of said department and according to their official duties.

11. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State of New York and/or the City of New York.

12. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant CITY OF NEW YORK.

FACTS

13. On November 1, 2012, beginning at approximately 7:30 p.m., by the corner of Rockaway Boulevard and 148th Street, Queens, New York, plaintiff PAULA MCCOURTY was walking home with her son, plaintiff ERIC GILLESPIE, when a defendant NYPD officer, without cause or justification, cursed at plaintiff MCCOURTY and asked to see her identification.

14. Plaintiff MCCOURTY asked why the officer wanted to see her identification.

15. In response the defendant officer stated in sum and substance, I can arrest you, you're under arrest.

16. The officer then handcuffed plaintiff MCCOURTY, and after she was handcuffed sprayed her with "O.C." spray and swiped her legs, causing plaintiff MCCOURTY to fall to the ground.

17. Additional defendant officers thereafter approached plaintiffs.

18. Multiple defendant officers participated in grabbing plaintiff GILLESPIE, spraying him with O.C. spray, slamming him to the ground, and handcuffing him.

19. Thereafter, defendant officers picked plaintiffs up, imprisoned plaintiffs in a police vehicle, and transported them to the 113th police precinct stationhouse.

20. As a result of the defendant officers' actions, plaintiffs PAULA MCCOURTY and ERIC GILLESPIE suffered pain, discomfort, physical injuries, and emotional distress.

21. The defendant officers imprisoned plaintiffs PAULA MCCOURTY and ERIC GILLESPIE until November 2, 2012, when plaintiffs were arraigned on baseless charges filed in Queens County Criminal Court under docket numbers 2012QN058422 and 2012QN058420, respectively; said charges having been filed based on the false allegations of defendant GEORGE BRANCACCIO. The defendants initiated said prosecution with malice, and otherwise caused said prosecution to be commenced against plaintiffs for the purpose of obtaining a collateral objective outside the legitimate ends of the legal process, to wit: to avoid disciplinary action for the above described acts of brutality.

22. Defendant BRANCACCIO created and manufactured false evidence against plaintiffs and used same against them in said legal proceedings. Specifically, defendant BRANCACCIO swore to false allegations that plaintiffs were purportedly acting disorderly and that they resisted arrest.

23. On November 2, 2012, all of the false charges filed against plaintiffs PAULA MCCOURTY and ERIC GILLESPIE were adjourned in contemplation of dismissal and subsequently dismissed and sealed.

24. Defendants BRANCACCIO, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10 participated in or were present or otherwise aware of the incident failed to intervene in the illegal conduct described herein despite a meaningful opportunity to do so.

25. All of the above occurred as a direct result of the unconstitutional policies, customs or practices of the City of New York, including, without limitation, the inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training, and supervising of its employees, a practice of employing excessive force, due to discrimination against plaintiffs based on their race, and pursuant to a practice of falsification.

26. The aforesaid event is not an isolated incident. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is aware (from lawsuits, notices of claims, and complaints filed with the NYPD's Internal Affairs Bureau, and the CITY OF NEW YORK'S Civilian Complaint Review Board) that many NYPD officers, including the defendants, are insufficiently trained regarding the use of force, disproportionately use force and arrest individuals due to discrimination against them based on their race and/or nationality, and engage in a practice of falsification.

27. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is further aware that such improper training has often resulted in a deprivation of civil rights. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to take corrective action. This failure caused the officers in the present case to violate the plaintiffs' civil rights.

28. Moreover, upon information and belief, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was aware, prior to the incident, that the individual defendants lacked the objectivity, temperament, maturity, discretion, and disposition to be employed as police officers. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has retained these officers, and failed to adequately train and supervise them.

29. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiffs PAULA MCCOURTY and ERIC GILLESPIE sustained, inter alia, physical injuries, emotional distress, embarrassment, and humiliation, and deprivation of their liberty and their constitutional rights.
